DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. This application does not contain an abstract of the disclosure as required by 37 CFR 1.72(b). Thus, the abstract from the PCT published document (WO 00/5194) has been placed in the application.
2. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed. The title should include at least one technical, or inventive, feature of the claimed instant invention.

Claim Objections

3. Claim 7 is objected to because of the following informality: missing a period at the end thereof. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. There is no disclosure to "the upstanding rim being adapted to prevent itself folding completely flat". How is this possible?
6. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. There is no disclosure to "the upstanding rim being adapted to prevent itself folding completely flat". How is this possible?

7. Claims 2,3,5, and 7-10 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

There is no structure set forth in claim 2 to allow the upstanding rim "to prevent itself folding completely flat".

The use of the term "it" in the claims render the claims indefinite since it is unclear if the term is referring to the upstanding rim or the sealing flange. It is suggested the name of the structure being referenced be set forth in the claims.

Claims 3 and 7 recite the limitation "the opposed surfaces of the sealing flange and the closure" in lines 2-3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claims 3,5,8, and 10 recite the limitation "the central axis of the closure and the sealing flange" in lines 2-3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 10 is substantially the same as claim 5.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

9. Claims 1-4 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pierpont et al. (US 5,533,823).

Disclosed is closure 12 and liner 20. Sealing flange 22 has an upstanding rim 26 which folds inwardly toward the sealing flange upon application of the closure to a container. The spacer is considered to be the lower end of the accordion-type upstanding rim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

10. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

11. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Erba (EP 847,930) in view of Hatakeyama et al. (US 4,238,042).

Erba teaches the claimed closure except for an upstanding rim portion of a sealing flange which cams along the closure to fold toward the sealing flange upon application of the closure to a container.

Hatakeyama teaches a closure 4 having a sealing flange having an upstanding rim which cams to fold toward the sealing flange upon application of the closure to a container.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to apply teaching of a folding upstanding rim of the sealing flange to the closure of Erba. Doing so maintains the closed container in an air-tight manner and completely prevents the leak of the container contents.

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Christmas et al. and Kerr teach in-bore devices of interest. Turenne, Cargile and Olmi teach collapsing flanges. Dickey teaches a tamper indicating closure of interest.

13. In order to reduce pendency and avoid potential delays, Group 3720 is encouraging FAXing of responses to Office Actions directly into the Group at (703) 305-3579. This practice may be used for filing papers not requiring a fee. It may also be used for filing papers which require a fee by applicants who authorize charges to a PTO deposit account. Please identify the examiner and art unit at the top of your cover sheet. Papers submitted via FAX into Group 3720 will be promptly forwarded to the examiner.

14. It is called to applicant's attention that if a communication is faxed before the reply time has expired, applicant may submit the reply with a "Certificate of Facsimile" which merely asserts that the reply is being faxed on a given date. So faxed, before the period for reply has expired, the reply may be considered timely. A suggested format for a certificate follows:

I hereby certify that this correspondence for Application Serial No. _____ is being facsimiled to The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office via fax number (703) 305-3579 on the date shown below:
